

Gaudet Family Update

Brethren,

Please forgive my “radio silence” over these past weeks. I’m sure you are familiar with the situation concerning my health, especially as surgery had to be delayed until my bones were strong enough to bear a revision of all the other back surgeries.

The day has come where the Drs feel it is safe to operate. The surgery is scheduled for May 9, next Monday!

Please intercede on our behalf that the procedure is successful and gives me the ability to function normally.

Over the past two years or so I have been forced to curtail many physical aspects of our ministry. I am looking forward to normal physical strength (whatever that means!) and freedom from pain.

Please pray for Krinny in these days. She is not doing all that well herself. Brethren pray for us!

I plan to update you when possible. We plan to publish a prayer letter ASAP.

BTW, Anytime you email me and expect a response, if you do not get that within 48 hours, I did not get it or I am indisposed for something like travel, or surgery. I use three email addresses, listed on my website. If none of those work please call me. Numbers on the website also.

Please note an additional email, tom@gaudetfamily.org. Everything should forward to this address as a means of "catching" any emails coming in. All of this is an effort make sure we do not miss emails.

For Souls Still Waiting,
Tom and Krinny Gaudet
